

SENIOR SOCIAL RESEARCH PROJECT
SCHEDULE

The following is a schedule of each assignment phase of the SSRP. Take this seriously. You will receive points for each task listed below. 500 points are assigned to either the Speaking and Listening category or the Writing and Literature category of your course grade. This is a significant amount of points that will, no doubt, impact your total grade.

Assignment	Due Date	Turned in	Comments
SSSRP Proposal Approval Contract (50 points Speaking & Listening)	Feb 7		2 signatures are mandatory -- student's and parent's
Liability Release Form and Integrity Commitment form (10 points Speaking & Listening)	February 15		Turn in the signed form to your English teacher
Annotated Bibliography (100 points Writing & Literature)	March 13		Turn this report into your English teacher during class, and turnitin.com by 8:00am on due date.
Research Paper Outline & Thesis/Intro Writing Lesson	March 21		Skills taught in class. Immediate practice of skills with Ms. Donoho's supervision. Homework will be to complete the new skill at home.
Research Paper Body Paragraphs Writing Lesson	March 29
Research Paper Conclusion Writing Lesson	April 10
Final Research Paper (200 points Writing & Literature)	April 25		Turn in this report to your English teacher during class, and turnitin.com by 8:00am on due date.
Research & Service Log (approx.. 40 points (10 points each) Writing & Literature)	Periodic checks will be given during class. It will be in the form of a journal check-in.		Turn in log/journal check-in to your English teacher on the day the journal is assigned
Presentations (100 points Speaking & Listening)	Week of May 6th		Have visual aid and speech ready; dress appropriately

NOTE: The above assignments MUST be returned to your English teacher before or on the due date in order to receive full points. 10% off for each day late.